ABSTRACT

This third grade elementary language text, designed for children in bilingual Inupiat-English programs in the Alaskan village of Barrow and several small villages near Barrow, contains one story about the adventures of an animal named Alli and his friends. The material is presented with many illustrations depicting the events in the story. The English equivalent is not given but it may be found in FL 008 165, which has the same text written in the Upper Kobuk dialect. (CPM)
